Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Andrew Comet Baraldson did, on September 3, 1987, add to the population of the Great State of South Dakota by becoming its newest citizen; and,

WHEREAS, Andy, in his infant wisdom, chose Comet and Tena Baraldson for parents, two fine people who have eagerly awaited the arrival of their first son; and,

WHEREAS, Showing further insight into the ways of the world, Andy chose a family with loving grandparents, having been named after his grandfathers and great grandfathers; and,

WHEREAS, Andy has already displayed that he will be a citizen of South Dakota to reckon with, having taken his time entering this world and sending his mother and father to the hospital on Wednesday night but choosing not to make his appearance until Thursday night; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of the foremost occasions in the lives of South Dakota's most noteworthy and finest citizens; and,

WHEREAS, birth certainly qualifies as the foremost occasion in everyone's life;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 3, 1987, and September 3 of every year hence as in South Dakota, and I join Andy's many new friends and relatives in wishing him a lifetime of health, happiness and prosperity.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifteenth Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Five

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

[illegible] SELTZER, SECRETARY OF STATE
